In A Man Named Good we follow the life of a human whose name becomes a concept in the future. The main character lives in a small village that is surrounded by trees and bushes of the wilderness, isolated from most of the world he lived a life full of curiosity, adventure and wonder. Until one day a stranger arrives at the village and by presence alone introduces a new and different way of living. Is the stranger the reason for the mistranslation of actions and words that we accept today as the norm? Let us take a moment to see where the word Good has actually come from it may surprise you.
