

From Sin and Sorrow to Service: The Journey of God's Prodigal Daughter

By Kay Painter

Ncc Publishing L L C, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . By man's standards, I had broken no laws. Still I guarded and justified my secrets. Doesn't everyone? Do you? Secrets can be caustic. I attended church but buried my secrets, creating shame, self-loathing, guilt, and soul-racking pain. I knew by God's laws, I would be judged as a sinner, an adulteress, and a murderer. The appalling choices I had made brought me to the very gates of Hell: emotionally, physically, and spiritually. Instead of reaching out to my Christian friends and church leaders, I became God's prodigal daughter, grasping at worldly solutions. Hopeless and desperate, I eventually submitted to HIM. Searching the Bible rigorously, I discovered deliverance from my demons. Jesus, the cross, and HIS resurrection were all I needed. I share my journey with you to give you the assurance that the forgiveness and freedom God offers is within your reach. Nothing is too hideous. if you turn it towards the SON. Our Savior is alive and offering redemption. Allow my story, God's mercy, and HIS grace...
