They would die like sheep, he 1 When once the cattle get adrift, the attendants cannot go amongst them so as to give them water: it would cost them their lives, or at least terrible injuries; therefore they never now attempt it. --S. P. gruffly remarked, if they were not roughly handled. When the cattle were finally landed at Deptford, many were so weak that they staggered about, and fell down helplessly. These the butchers quickly killed. A ship which left America on September 7, with 360 head of cattle, was caught in a cyclone when three days out. She arrived Friday, the 27th, with only fourteen (!) head of live cattle; the remainder had died during the...
