If I had been going to die this trip probably I would be under that pile now. There was a big mass of rock close to where he stood, and he crouched behind it, waiting. The hoofbeats grew louder. Whoever was coming was not making very rapid time. I can t imagine what it was, he heard the girl s voice say, at last. I reckon it means trouble for us, anyhow, old man. A mumbling answer was heard. You needn t think you are going to escape, Brady, on account of this, the girl s voice called out, shrilly. I m good for an old bag of bones like you any day in the week. If my brother and all hands are dead so much the better. I ll make you tell me your secret and show me where the money is hid. Then I ll have it all for myself. After you have killed me? demanded a voice which was unmistakably that of the banker. The girl gave a harsh laugh. Well, perhaps I may conclude to let you live, providing you do the right thing, she said. We will see about that later. First, we must find/out how the case stands. I must be boss here, thought Harry. There is only one way, and that is to take her by surprise. He crouched down behind the big mass of rock and waited. Morning had already begun...
