We have some hope however, for, after a long sickness in which he suffered excruciating pain, he did seem to be conscious of his sins, and to manifest sorrow for them, with faith in Jesus Christ, as his only Saviour, just before his heart gave its last throb. The soul of the other young man passed away under a dark, dark cloud. A drunken revel brought on a fit of apoplexy, in which he died. He was possessed of many fine qualities, and in his periods of soberness, was the stay of his widowed mother and only sister, by whom bitter tears were shed as his mortal remains were borne away to their last resting-place. Is it not highly probable that if all our plans had been in operation, such associations would have been thrown around these persons as would have...
