

The Journal of Experimental Zoology, Vol. 16 (Classic Reprint) (Paperback)

By Wistar Institute of Anatomy and Biology

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from The Journal of Experimental Zoology, Vol. 16 While studying the phenomena of regeneration and structural regulation in Bursaria, it became desirable to know something of the relations of this organism to its food and of the processes which the solid food material undergoes in its passage into and through the cell and in the elimination of residues. This paper aims to present the first part of these observations and to make a general survey of the relations of this organism to food, leading up to a more detailed study of these and certain other problems of the cell as found in this unicellular animal. Bursaria was found to be much more favorable for the investigation of these phenomena than the smaller infusoria such as Paramecium. No study has heretofore been made of the relations of Bursaria to food, so that the facts herein presented are new. The present investigation attempts not only to determine qualitatively whether the relations to food are similar to those more or less known for Paramecium, Stentor, Vorticella and other infusoria, but more particularly to...
